

McLean County Pride

In an effort to support the McLean County Livestock Industry, the McLean County Farm Bureau has created McLean County Pride. McLean County Pride recognition is available to qualifying animals entered in these divisions of the McLean County Fair Junior Show. ALL animals in pair/group classes must be Pride eligible to compete.

Department-Beef

Department-Dairy

Department-Goats

Department-Sheep

Department-Swine

To be eligible, the animal must:

BE BORN IN McLEAN COUNTY

OR BORN UNDER THE OWNERSHIP OF A McLEAN COUNTY 4-H MEMBER

AND MUST BE MAINTAINED AND EXHIBITED BY AN EXHIBITOR IN THE McLEAN COUNTY 4-H SHOW.

Proof of eligibility will be determined by registration certificate, presented at time of check in Wednesday, August 2. Market animals and commercial breeding livestock that qualify for McLean County Pride recognition and do not have a registration certificate must prove eligibility by presenting a completed "McLean County Pride Eligibility Form" at check-in. The form is available at the McLean County Extension office or can be downloaded from the McLean County Extension web page at
